en e	•	.
· ·		25X1/ 25X1/
XX.
19 December 1	1962
P.O. Box 8043
Southwest Station Washington 24, D.C.
Dear
It is reconstitution		25X1/
It is respectfully requested that Contract "Collection Mensuration Techniques for Ground Photographs, be extended from 1962 to 25 January 1963 and be increased in past for	and Field	25X1
	n 21 Decembe	r
approximately The cost in	inclosure ^
No increase in fee is requested.
and comprised materials for 31 illustrations out of a total of 32	f the delay in contractor's December 196 At the preser	2 nt
and comprised materials for 31 illustrations out of a total of 200. date, the final draft is 93% complete. This year, the Christmas and New Year holiday periods are ein length resulting in two short work weeks. However, it is expect member of the contractor's reproduction staff visit our facility shor Year's day to examine the completed material, both text and illustrates more days may be needed to adjust any items not considered so for his reproduction requirement. Therefore, the completed manual livered sometime between 7 and 11 January 1963. The additional time to 25 January 1963 is needed to finish and final report. This report will itemize a large percentage of the contant cost which is not reflected in the manual.	At the preser each four day ted to have a tly after New ations. A atisfactory will be de-	2 nt s
and comprised materials for 31 illustrations out of a total of 200. date, the final draft is 93% complete. This year, the Christmas and New Year holiday periods are endered in length resulting in two short work weeks. However, it is expect member of the contractor's reproduction staff visit our facility short year's day to examine the completed material, both text and illustrates few more days may be needed to adjust any items not considered staff in reproduction requirement. Therefore, the completed manual livered sometime between 7 and 11 January 1963. The additional time to 25 January 1963 is needed to finish and final report. This report will itemize a large percentage of the contained cost which is not reflected in the manual. For example, the final report is not reflected in the manual. For example, the final report of data extraction techniques not incorporated in the respective presented.	At the preser ach four day ted to have attions. A attisfactory will be de- deliver the tract effort eld test of contract, manual will	2 nt s
and comprised materials for 31 illustrations out of a total of 200. date, the final draft is 93% complete. This year, the Christmas and New Year holiday periods are ein length resulting in two short work weeks. However, it is expect member of the contractor's reproduction staff visit our facility short Year's day to examine the completed material, both text and illustricated for his reproduction requirement. Therefore, the completed manual livered sometime between 7 and 11 January 1963. The additional time to 25 January 1963 is needed to finish and final report. This report will itemize a large percentage of the compand cost which is not reflected in the manual. For example, the final metrical techniques comprised 1/3 of the total time and cost of this and a number of data extraction techniques not incorporated in the second cost of this and a number of data extraction techniques not incorporated in the second cost of this and a number of data extraction techniques not incorporated in the contraction techniques not incorporated in the contraction techniques not incorporated in the contraction.	At the preser ach four day sted to have attions. A attisfactory will be de-	2 nt s
and comprised materials for 31 illustrations out of a total of 200. date, the final draft is 93% complete. This year, the Christmas and New Year holiday periods are entil length resulting in two short work weeks. However, it is expect member of the contractor's reproduction staff visit our facility short Year's day to examine the completed material, both text and illustrates few more days may be needed to adjust any items not considered so for his reproduction requirement. Therefore, the completed manual livered sometime between 7 and 11 January 1963. The additional time to 25 January 1963 is needed to finish and final report. This report will itemize a large percentage of the contained cost which is not reflected in the manual. For example, the financial techniques comprised 1/3 of the total time and cost of this and a number of data extraction techniques not incorporated in the represented. No additional funds or time will be requested on this contract, tractor's technical representative is aware of this request.	At the preser ach four day sted to have attions. A attisfactory will be de-	2 nt s
and comprised materials for 31 illustrations out of a total of 200. date, the final draft is 93% complete. This year, the Christmas and New Year holiday periods are entirely in two short work weeks. However, it is expect member of the contractor's reproduction staff visit our facility short year's day to examine the completed material, both text and illustrates few more days may be needed to adjust any items not considered so for his reproduction requirement. Therefore, the completed manual livered sometime between 7 and 11 January 1963. The additional time to 25 January 1963 is needed to finish and final report. This report will itemize a large percentage of the contained cost which is not reflected in the manual. For example, the fin metrical techniques comprised 1/3 of the total time and cost of this and a number of data extraction techniques not incorporated in the represented. No additional funds or time will be requested on this contract, tractor's technical representative is aware of this request for a time extension.	At the preser ach four day sted to have attions. A attisfactory will be de-	2 nt s
and comprised materials for 31 illustrations out of a total of 200. date, the final draft is 93% complete. This year, the Christmas and New Year holiday periods are entirely in two short work weeks. However, it is expect member of the contractor's reproduction staff visit our facility short year's day to examine the completed material, both text and illustrates few more days may be needed to adjust any items not considered so for his reproduction requirement. Therefore, the completed manual livered sometime between 7 and 11 January 1963. The additional time to 25 January 1963 is needed to finish and final report. This report will itemize a large percentage of the contained cost which is not reflected in the manual. For example, the fin metrical techniques comprised 1/3 of the total time and cost of this and a number of data extraction techniques not incorporated in the represented. No additional funds or time will be requested on this contract, tractor's technical representative is aware of this request for a time extension.	At the preser ach four day sted to have attions. A attisfactory will be de-	2 nt s n